

Listening to music is a huge pleasure for many of us but it can also be of great value and enormous benefit to those in care.

"The music was very appropriate for our children, interest was maintained throughout. I was very impressed with Margaret's relaxed presentation and this transmitted to our children who remained relaxed also."

"A confused patient, who has been in hospital for 8 weeks, was able to recognise the music and move along with the beat. She was even able to predict the next note with her hand movements."

"Serge was wonderful from the start. The hall came alive, the members were involved from the start and they loved him. He also made them laugh a lot. We are always delighted by your wonderful variety of musicians".

Music in Hospitals is a charity which arranges some 5,000 live concerts throughout the UK each year in hospitals, hospices, care homes, day care centres and special needs schools. All concerts are performed by professional musicians who bring the joy and therapeutic benefits of live music to adults and children whose lives are restricted by all kinds of illness and disability.

Why not enjoy the great outdoors this summer by holding a delicious

BBQ Party

in aid of

Music in Hospitals

Creating joy through live music with recipes from.....

Gordon Ramsay

Tony Tobin

Brian Turner

Phil Vickery

"SAUCY, SPICY, FINGERLICKIN GOOD!"

Succulent meats, fresh salads and tempting pud'swhat better way to enjoy the summer than by entertaining your friends with a delicious BBQ .

Music in Hospitals is launching a BBQ PARTY FUNDRAISER to help raise funds to provide more concerts for those in care.

All we ask you to do is to host a BBQ PARTY for your family and friends and then ask your guests to give a donation to the charity.

The Party can either be held in your own garden, or if you would like to hold a larger event you could ask your local pub or sports/social club if they will open their grounds for you and you can sell tickets.

All donations – whether they be from a small family BBQ or a large party – will help us in raising vital funds to support our work in the community.

To receive your BBQ pack, please fill in the coupon on the right.

Burgers, bangers, fish or steak.....with each donation more music we make!

We are delighted that Gordon Ramsay, Tony Tobin, Brian Turner and Phil Vickery have agreed to help Music in Hospitals by sending us their favourite BBQ recipe, which will be included in the BBQ pack
